

William Kane
Artist

William James Kane was born in Whitehorse and was raised in Haines Junction, Yukon. He is a member of Champagne & Aishihik First Nations and is part of the Crow clan.

“Willie” has been carving for 23 years, mostly in moose, caribou and sheep antler. He has recently begun carving in wood as well through the Sundog Retreat carving program.

Many of his antler carvings are in private collections throughout the Yukon and around the world.

William can be contacted through the Sundog studio at (867) 633-4186 or at home (867) 456-7743.

